The Property

A beautifully presented lateral apartment on a sought-after street

Stepping into the flat, you are welcomed by a generous reception room that fills the space with light through large windows overlooking the leafy street below. The room benefits from high ceilings and built-in shelving, whilst an elegant fireplace adds character and charm to this sophisticated space.

The kitchen features fitted units and has been thoughtfully designed with integrated appliances. The space connects naturally with the living and dining area, creating an excellent flow throughout the apartment.

The principal bedroom is beautifully proportioned with built-in wardrobes and large windows, whilst the neutral palette creates a calm atmosphere. The second bedroom, currently set up as a dining space, offers flexible accommodation with generous proportions and built-in storage.

Both bathrooms are presented in excellent condition. The property has been decorated in a contemporary fashion whilst respecting its traditional character.
