Indoor Spaces

Entering the flat on the lower ground floor, the lobby leads through to a generous reception room with wooden floors and a decorative fireplace. Beyond is a bedroom with garden views and a next-door bathroom.

The rear of the flat contains a kitchen with a door giving access to the garden. Finally, at the far end of the property, is a second bedroom also looking out on the garden.

Outdoor Spaces

The property includes a paved garden with enough space for outdoor eating. In addition, it has its own door for access to the street and a vault for additional storage.

The Neighbourhood

Brunswick Gardens is a tree-lined street in Kensington with white stucco houses built in the 1850s and 1860s. This is a central and sought-after address, kept safe thanks to neighbourhood security patrols.

Notting Hill underground station is a short walk away, and so too the open spaces of Kensington Gardens. In addition, the area is well-served with restaurants, bars and shops, with Portobello Road and Kensington High Street both in easy reach.
