The Property

Duplex flat with a generous living area, in a grand mansion block on a sought-after Chelsea street

Entering the flat on the ground floor, the front hall leads into a reception room with high ceilings and tall south-facing windows that fill the space with light.

Indoor Spaces

On the other side of the entrance hall is a dining room, flowing through to a fitted kitchen with enough space for an informal eating area. A glazed partition wall separates the front reception room from the rest of this level, spreading light throughout the floor.

The Design

The property is decorated in a bright and colourful style. Its stylish interiors mix classical and contemporary details.

The Neighbourhood

The flat includes a paved patio on the lower ground floor with enough space for outdoor eating. It also has access to Cadogan Square communal garden.

This desirable address is lined with grand mansion blocks built in the late nineteenth century. Its buildings are inspired by Flemish design, with polychromatic walls of red and white brick. This building has both a porter and a lift. Cadogan Gardens is a short walk away from Sloane Square and connected to the square by the pedestrianised Pavilion Road. This street is lined with artisan food shops and independent boutiques, adding to the village-like feel of the neighbourhood. Also, the celebrated shops, hotels, restaurants and bars of Sloane Street and Chelsea are within easy reach.
