The Property

Spacious two-bedroom flat in a Victorian building on a secluded street

Indoor Spaces

Entering the flat on the first floor, double doors open from the entrance hall onto a reception room. This is an impressive space, with high ceilings and French doors opening out onto the balcony. Beyond is an open-plan kitchen with a central island and dining area, as well more French doors opening onto the terrace. This entire side of the flat faces south, ensuring both rooms are filled with light throughout the day.

The Neighbourhood

The building is a handsome red-brick Victorian house and benefits from a caretaker and spacious south-facing terrace

Cheyne Gardens is a quiet street adjacent to the historic properties of Cheyne Walk. Both Albert Bridge and the Chelsea Embankment are a short walk away, while the beautiful private grounds of the Chelsea Physic Garden and the open spaces of Battersea Park are within each reach. Finally, the celebrated shops and restaurants of the King's Road are close, as well as the charming pubs and streets that make up the Chelsea village.
