Entertaining Spaces

At the back of the reception room is a kitchen, with a window seat dining area at the far end. A bathroom occupies the next-door room, as well as a corridor with a second front door. At the end of the corridor is a flexible space that can either be used as a study with storage or a bedroom.

Outdoor Spaces

The flat includes a front balcony looking out over the street.

The Neighbourhood

Clanricarde Gardens was built between 1869 and 1873 by Thomas Good and William White. The tall Victorian houses lining the street have stucco bases and beautiful window dressings. No.48 is at the far end of the cul-de-sac, meaning almost no traffic. Notting Hill Gate underground station is close, and so too the open spaces of Kensington Gardens. In addition, the restaurants and shops of Notting Hill are a short walk away.
