The Property

Delightful family home in Chelsea set back from the street, with a sun-drenched balcony and garage

Entering the house on the ground floor, the front foyer leads through to a central staircase hall. To the right, doors open onto a double reception room running the entire length of the property and filled with light from front and rear windows. This room is divided into separate dining and seating areas, while a French door leads out to the balcony.

Indoor Spaces

The ground floor also contains a fitted kitchen and a guest WC. Meanwhile, the lower ground floor features a spacious utility room with separate street access.

The house has been decorated in a tasteful fashion, blending classical and contemporary details to create bright and spacious rooms throughout. It is presented in good condition.

The Bedrooms

On the first floor, the attractive principal bedroom has an ensuite bathroom and considerable wardrobe space. The other double bedroom on this floor is also ensuite, while the two further bedrooms on the second floor have a shared bathroom.

Outdoor Spaces

The house includes a south-west facing balcony that receives light for much of the day. In addition, the property is set back from the road in a gated private square with off-street parking out front and benefits from a garage at the back, with room for two cars.

The Neighbourhood

Dovehouse Street connects the Fulham Road to the King's Road, making it ideally positioned for the neighbourhood's many restaurants and shops. This section of the street is lined with beautiful red brick houses from a variety of historical periods, mixing modern, neo-Georgian and Arts and Crafts design. South Kensington underground station is a short walk away.
