The Property

A beautifully renovated apartment with exceptional contemporary design

Stepping into this first-floor apartment, one is immediately struck by the impressive double-height ceiling that soars to nearly 5 metres, creating a remarkable sense of space and light throughout the open-plan reception room. This generously proportioned living area seamlessly incorporates a refined kitchen with a breakfast bar, featuring sleek fitted units and integrated appliances.

French doors from the reception area lead onto a charming balcony, with a well-appointed guest WC adjacent to the kitchen area.

The private balcony provides a pleasant outdoor area, while residents enjoy access to communal gardens.

The Bedroom

The gallery level offers a substantial bedroom with views down to the reception below, complete with a comfortable seating area and built-in storage. A sophisticated en-suite bathroom features a freestanding bathtub and separate shower.

The Design

The thoughtful renovation maximises space while maintaining architectural integrity, with arched doorways and built-in shelving adding character to this distinctive home.

The Neighbourhood

The well-maintained period building benefits from a lift, providing convenient access to this first-floor apartment. Earls Court Square is a quiet residential address in sought-after SW5, with excellent proximity to cafés, restaurants and shops. Transport links are superb, with Earls Court Underground station a short walk away. Holland Park and Kensington Gardens are within easy reach.
