Indoor Spaces

Downstairs, the third floor contains two bedrooms. Both of these are ensuite, and both feature inbuilt storage and their own terraces. This floor also contains a utility cupboard and an entrance hall.

The Design

The flat is newly built and finished to a high standard. This includes comfort cooling and underfloor heating, as well as European oak wood flooring and Carrera marble in the kitchen and bathrooms.

Outdoor Spaces

The property features two expansive terraces on the fourth floor, with enough space for outdoor seating and summer entertaining. Furthermore, the building offers a lift, a porter and off-street parking in an underground garage.

The Neighbourhood

Essoldo House is an award-winning development on the site of the former Essoldo cinema, Chelsea. Its dramatic shape evokes this history, while also housing a modern Everyman cinema. The building is exceptionally well-located on the King's Road, with many shops and restaurants in walking distance. In addition, Old Church Street connects to the Fulham Road and Chelsea Embankment, meaning the River Thames and Battersea Park are also close.
