The Property

A third-floor flat with an elegant finish, in a Victorian mansion block on the popular Hollywood Road.

Indoor Spaces

The flat is centred around a large and beautiful reception room, with windows facing north and west. Its walls and doors are decorated with panel moulding, adding to the sense of refinement. As well as a seating area around the ornate fireplace, there is also space enough for a separate dining area. The reception room opens onto the kitchen, as well as a separate storage cupboard.

The Bedrooms

The principal bedroom has a window bay looking out over Hollywood Road, while the second bedroom has a wide bank of windows looking out over the same aspect. Both bedrooms include inbuilt storage, the white wardrobes matching the picture rails and decorative cornices. A pair of tastefully decorated bathrooms complete the property.

The Neighbourhood

Hollywood Road is a delightful street, mixing apartment buildings, terrace houses with Doric porches, and a mix of restaurants, pubs and bakeries. Part of the Boltons Conservation Area, most of its properties were built in the early 1860s – before the more famous Hollywood, in California, was settled. Its south-east end joins the Fulham Road, with a full range of shops and transports link. Fulham Broadway underground station is a short walk away, as well as the beautiful parkland and Victorian tombs of the Brompton Cemetery.
