Indoor Spaces

The first floor is entirely occupied by an elegant reception room. High ceilings, an elegant cornice, full-length south facing sash windows and a carved stone fireplace create a sense of sophistication.

The lower ground floor features a spacious fitted kitchen, with a central island, and has access to the garden. Double doors lead through to the dining room, benefiting from inbuilt shelving. This floor also contains a pair of storage vaults and separate street access.

The Design

The house is presented in good condition with tasteful wooden floors in the upper storeys.

Outdoor Spaces & The Neighbourhood

The property includes a rear patio garden and south-facing balcony with rooftop views.

Lupus Street marks the southern border of a grid of terraces designed by Thomas Cubbitt in 1825. These terraces are lined in Regency townhouses, many with stucco facades or dressings, adding to the historic feel of the neighbourhood. From here, Pimlico Station is close, while Sloane Square underground station is also nearby. A little closer is Orange Square, with its popular farmers' market each weekend. Finally, the many restaurants and shops of the King's Road are within walking distance.
