The Property

Second-floor flat on the King's Road with a generous reception room, in a spectacular new-build apartment block

Indoor Spaces

Entering the flat on the second floor, the entrance hall opens onto a central corridor, leading through to the main reception room. This is an impressive space, with an open-plan kitchen and breakfast bar, as well as separate dining and seating areas. Wall height-windows on two sides and a rounded corner window ensure the room is filled with light throughout the day.

The Bedrooms

On the opposite side of the flat is the principal bedroom, which includes a corridor wardrobe and a spacious ensuite bathroom. A second bedroom, a second bathroom, a guest loo and a study complete the property.

Outdoor Spaces

Both bedrooms have access to the long balcony running alongside the flat. In addition, the reception room and kitchen both have French windows opening onto Juliet balconies.

The Neighbourhood

The flat is newly built and finished to a high standard. This includes comfort cooling and underfloor heating, as well as considerable storage and beautiful views over the King's Road.

Essoldo House is a modern building on the site of the former Essoldo cinema, Chelsea. Its dramatic shape evokes this history, while also housing a modern Everyman cinema. The building is exceptionally well-located on the King's Road, with many shops and restaurants in walking distance. In addition, Old Church Street connects to the Fulham Road and Chelsea Embankment, meaning the River Thames and Battersea Park are also close.
