The Property

Beautiful flat with lofty proportions and spacious layout in an impressive 1920s building with porter.

Open-Plan Kitchen

Entering the flat on the first floor, the front hall leads towards the living spaces. This includes a large open-plan kitchen with wooden floors, modern units, a central island, an informal eating area and a pantry.

Generous Reception Room

Beyond is a generous reception room, with double doors flowing through to a formal dining room. Both these spaces offer high ceilings and decorative cornices creating a sense of elegance.

The Principal Bedroom

The flat also contains three-four bedrooms. The principal bedroom has an ensuite bathroom with both shower and bath, a well-proportioned dressing room and an additional walk-in wardrobe.

Further Bedrooms

Two further bedrooms are also ensuite, while the final bedroom can also be used as a sitting room or study. Meanwhile, a laundry room and guest WC complete the layout.

The Design

The rooms are decorated in a thoughtful style that blends classical and contemporary details. Presented in excellent condition, the restrained interiors add to the sense of brightness and space throughout.

The Neighbourhood

The apartment has full-length French doors open onto Juliet balconies across the entire width of the building. It offers views north towards the greenery of Regent's Park, as well as south towards the spire of All Souls Langham Place.

82 Portland Place is a prestigious mansion block constructed in the 1920s with a stone façade. This well-run block features both lift and 24-hour porter, while the flat also has a service exit off the kitchen.

The building occupies an excellent location in central London. From here, the restaurants and private boutiques of Marylebone High Street are close, while the popular neighbourhoods of Fitzrovia and Soho are also nearby. In addition, the open spaces of Regent's Park are a short walk away.
