The Property

Two bedroom apartment with refined interiors on this historically rich street

Entering the flat on the ground floor, a staircase leads up to the first-floor reception room. This includes a fitted and well equipped open-plan kitchen, as well as a separate seating area and two large West facing sash windows drawing in the light.

The Bedrooms

The flat is finished in a contemporary style, with plenty of inbuilt storage. In addition, it benefits from underfloor heating throughout.

The second floor is occupied by a spacious bedroom with adjacent bathroom, and on the third is the principal bedroom with an ensuite bathroom, and beyond that French doors leading out onto a balcony. Both bedrooms have ample built-in storage and enjoy the same Westerly exposure as the reception space.

The Neighbourhood

Pottery Lane is a picturesque, mews-like street, leading towards Avondale Park. This area once consisted of brickfields, which were fired in the large kilns lining the road, to provide building materials for London's rapid growth. These days, the street is well located, with Holland Park underground station a short walk away. In addition, the open spaces of Holland Park itself are within easy reach, while the many restaurants and independent shops of Notting Hill are also close by.
