The Design

This impressive family home has wide and lofty proportions. It is decorated in a tasteful classical style to suit its historic location.

Outdoor Spaces

The property includes a rear garden with gates opening onto Minera Mews and providing off-street parking. It also offers a south-west facing terrace with wooden decking and enough space for outdoor seating.

The Neighbourhood

South Eaton Place is an impressive street running south from Eaton Square. It is lined with white stucco terrace houses from the Victoria era.

This section of the terrace was built in 1830, part of the ambitious development that of the Grosvenor Estate that created Belgravia. From here, Sloane Square underground station is a short walk away, while Victoria Station is also close. The restaurants and shops of Chelsea are within easy reach, while nearby Orange Square hosts a popular farmers' market each weekend.
