The Property

CLOSE X

A well-presented first-floor apartment with lift access.

Entering the flat, a hallway leads through to the principal rooms, with the family bathroom positioned just off the entrance. The bathroom is fitted with a walk-in shower and marble-tiled surfaces, complemented by a heated towel rail. The reception room forms the heart of the apartment, generous in scale and arranged as an open-plan living and dining space with access onto a balcony. Beyond the reception room, the kitchen sits set back yet remains open plan, fitted with sage-green units, brass hardware and a light stone worktop, with a tiled splashback adding texture to the space. The reception room opens onto a balcony, overlooking the buildings beyond.

The Bedrooms

CLOSE X

Two bedrooms are positioned to the other side of the flat. The first bedroom is well-proportioned and bright, with a window filling the space with natural light. The second bedroom offers a similarly restful feel, with a fitted desk area and mirror to one side, and a window overlooking the surrounding buildings.

The Neighbourhood

Sir Oswald Stoll Mansions sits on Fulham Road, a short walk from Fulham Broadway station, with Chelsea Football Club's Stamford Bridge stadium next door. The development is entered through a pair of historic stone-pillared gates, inscribed in honour of servicemen who fought at battles including Heligoland Bight and Ypres, reflecting the building's origins as veterans' housing founded by theatre impresario Sir Oswald Stoll in 1916. Fulham Road itself offers an excellent range of shops, restaurants and cafés within easy reach, alongside the wider amenities of Fulham and Chelsea.
