Stylish house in Kensington with open-plan living areas and contemporary interiors

The house has been carefully designed with a contemporary finish for its lower levels to maximise the sense of space and light. The stylish interiors include a feature staircase with wooden steps and open treads leading down to the lower ground floor.

Indoor Spaces

Entering the house on the ground floor, the front door opens directly onto a spacious reception room that occupies the entire floor. Currently used as a dining room with informal seating area, the high ceilings and wooden floors give this space a sense of elegance. This floor also contains a guest WC on the half landing.

Downstairs is a spectacular open-plan kitchen with central island breakfast bar and a sitting area beyond. Bifolding French doors lead into the garden and a long overhead skylight ensures the room is filled with light throughout the day. The other end of this floor has separate street access and a storage vault.

The Neighbourhood

CLOSE X

The house has a paved patio garden with enough space for outdoor seating and entertaining.

Abingdon Road is a delightful Kensington street, mostly containing Victorian terrace houses with white stucco dressings. From here, the restaurants, shops and underground station of Kensington High Street are close, while the southern entrance to Holland Park is a short walk away.
