The Property

Beautifully designed and decorated house with sophisticated interiors a short walk away from Kensington Gardens

The house is decorated in a sophisticated style that blends classical elegance with modern convenience. A restrained colour scheme and tasteful decorative details add to the sense of calm and space.

Indoor Spaces

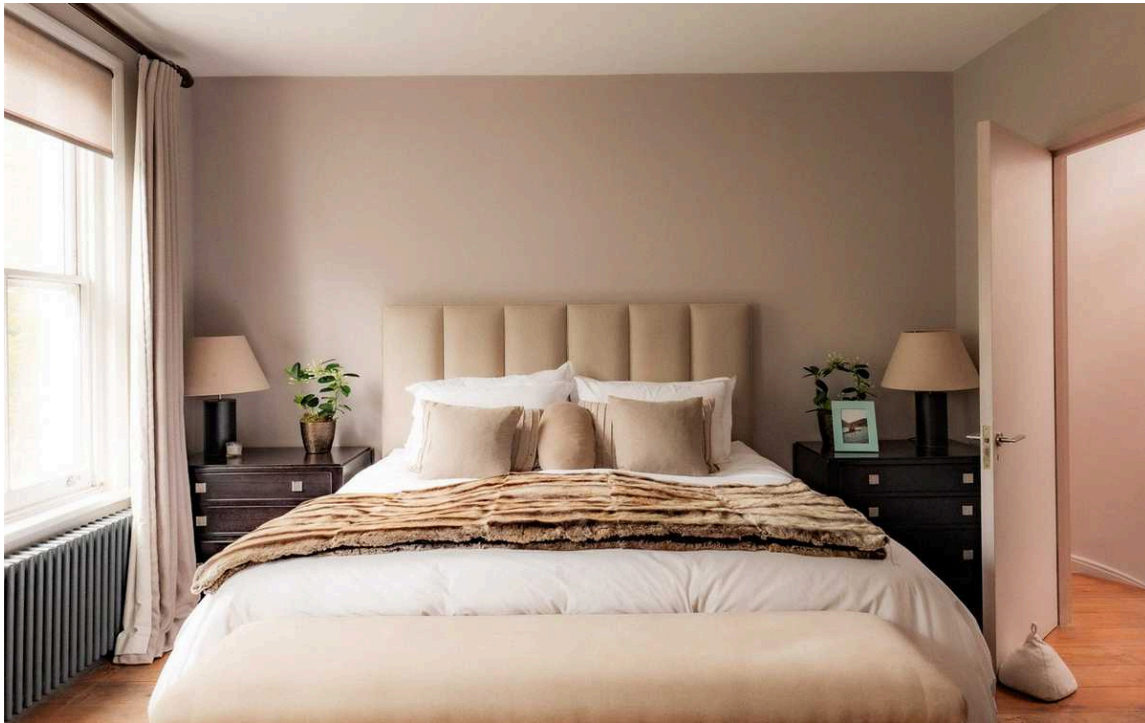

Entering the house on the ground floor, the front hall flows through to a bright and generous open-plan kitchen. This features modern units, a central island breakfast bar and an informal eating area. Meanwhile, sliding French doors and an overhead skylight flood this space with light.

Entertaining Spaces

The first floor is almost entirely occupied by a well-proportioned reception room with wooden floors. The front half offers a formal seating area with a working fireplace, and the rear half offers a comfortable family television room. At the back, double French doors open onto a Juliet balcony, while a utility room and a guest WC complete this level.

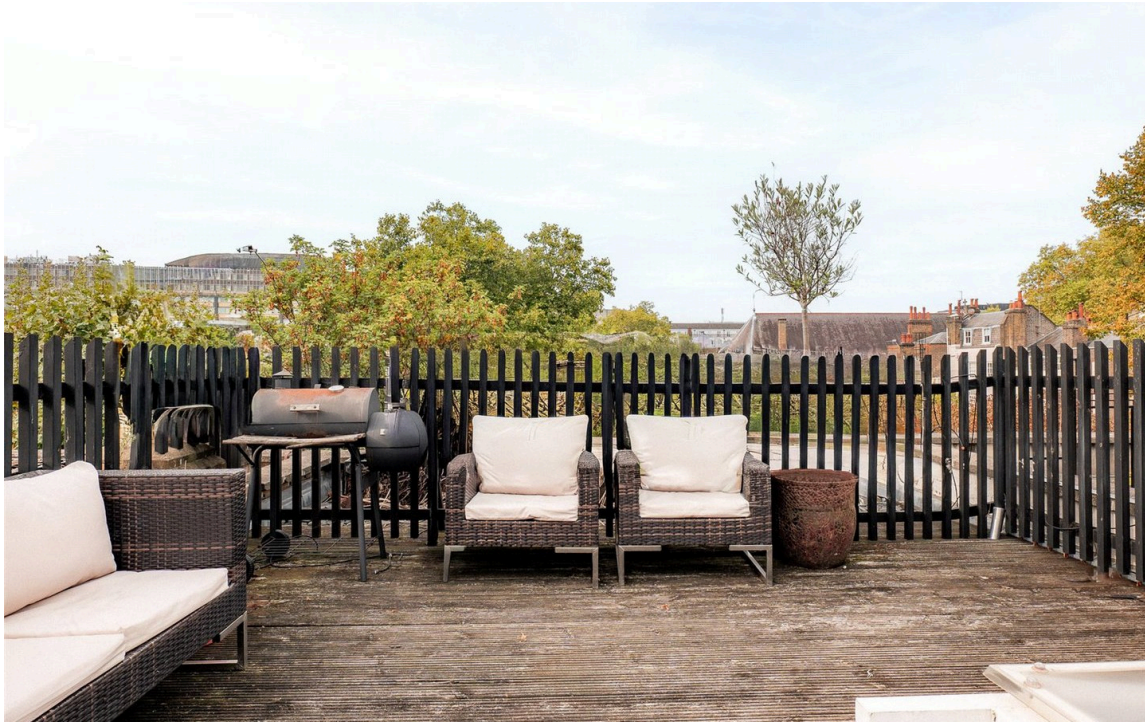

The Bedrooms

The second floor contains a pair of bedrooms, sharing a large bathroom with a bath. Two more bedrooms occupy the top floor, including an attractive principal bedroom suite with connected bathroom and dressing room.

Outdoor Spaces

The house offers a garage with parking for one car. It also offers a paved rear garden with enough space for outdoor seating.

The generous roof terrace features wooden decking and glorious views towards Maria Assumpta Chapel on Kensington Square. It is the perfect space for dining or entertaining

The Neighbourhood

Ansdehl Terrace is a secluded street in an enviable location. One side is lined with mews-like cottages, while the other side features attractive terrace houses with stucco bases.

From here, the restaurants and shops of Kensington High Street are a short walk away, while Gloucester Road is also close. Both these streets have underground stations, and the open spaces of Kensington Gardens and Hyde Park are likewise within easy reach.
