The Property

Tasteful one bedroom flat moments away from the Thames Embankment and Albert Bridge

Pier House is an iconic 1970s apartment building at the corner of Cheyne Walk and Oakley Street. It offers lifts and a 24-hour porter

Indoor Spaces

Stepping into the flat on the third floor, the entrance leads through to a well-proportioned reception room. The room has enough space for separate dining and seating areas, while a pair of south-east facing sash windows ensure the space is well lit.

The Bedroom

The flat also contains a bedroom with built-in storage space and a next-door bathroom with a bath. A fitted kitchen and a utility cupboard complete the property.

The Design

Newly refurbished, the flat is decorated in a contemporary fashion and presented in excellent condition.

The Neighbourhood

Cheyne Walk is one of the most historic streets in London. It has been home to numerous celebrated figures, including the writers George Eliot and Bertrand Russell, the painters Dante Gabriel Rossetti and J.M.W. Turner, the actress Elizabeth Taylor and the politician David Lloyd George. The Thames Embankment lies to the south of the street, with the Albert Bridge leading to Battersea Park. To the north is the King's Road and its superb range of restaurants and shops. In addition, the beautiful Chelsea Physic Garden is just a short walk away.
