The Property

Well-proportioned flat in a beautiful building on the corner of a prestigious garden square

The flat is presented in good condition. Wooden floors and windows on three sides give it a bright and relaxed atmosphere.

Indoor Spaces

Entering the flat on the first floor, the front hall leads through to a spacious reception room. This is a well-lit space, thanks to south-facing sash windows, a double aspect and high ceilings with an elegant cornice. In addition, it has enough room for separate dining and seating areas.

The Bedrooms

The other side of the flat features a bedroom with inbuilt storage. In between is a fitted kitchen with a breakfast bar and beautiful floor tiles, as well as a bathroom with a bath.

The Neighbourhood

The flat occupies the corner of Collingham Road and Courtfield Gardens in South Kensington. The latter is a prestigious garden square, lined with tall terrace houses in the Italianate style, built between 1875 and 1881. From here, Gloucester Road underground station is a short walk away, while Earl's Court station is also close. In addition, the world-class museums and cultural venues of South Kensington are within easy reach.
