The Neighbourhood

Compass House includes a lift and a porter.

Kensington Gardens Square is an impressive square of stucco houses built in the mid-nineteenth century around a communal garden. Compass House lies to the north of the square in a modern building designed to match the terraces of Italianate architecture. From here, the many restaurants and shops of Westbourne Grove are within easy reach. Queensway Station is a short walk away, and beyond that the open spaces of Hyde Park. In addition, the historic Whiteley's department store has recently been developed into a desirable shopping and dining destination.
