The Property

Well-proportioned flat with west-facing windows in South Kensington

Indoor Spaces

Entering the flat on the lower ground floor, the foyer leads through a well-proportioned living area. As well as separate dining and seating areas, this includes a bed which can be folded up for added convenience. Furthermore, a west-facing bay window brings in added light.

The flat also contains a fitted kitchen, a bathroom with beautiful tiling and additional storage space in the foyer.

The Neighbourhood

Cranley Gardens is an impressive street lined with red brick mansion blocks and terrace houses with stucco dressings. From here, the many restaurants and shops of the Fulham Road and the King's Road are within easy reach. In addition, South Kensington underground station is a short walk away.
