Indoor Spaces

Entering the flat on the fourth floor, the front hall leads through to well-proportioned reception room. As well as high ceilings and wooden floors, the west-facing sash window has beautiful garden views. This side of the flat also contains a fitted kitchen with modern appliances and access to the roof terrace.

The Bedrooms

The flat is decorated in a tasteful style to suit the historic setting. It is presented in good condition and available furnished.

The other side of the property includes three bedrooms, two of them with ensuite bathrooms and walk-in wardrobes. There is also a convenient utility cupboard.

The Neighbourhood

The generous south-facing roof terrace has wooden decking and enough space for outdoor dining.

The flat is part of a double-fronted stucco townhouse built in the mid-Victorian era. These grand villas were constructed between 1860 and 1880 by the brothers William and Francis Radford. Early residents of the street included aristocrats like the Marquess of Londonderry and the Maharajah of Lahore, as well as prominent engineers, politicians and lawyers.

From here, Holland Park underground station is close, while the restaurants and shops of Notting Hill are also nearby. In addition, the open spaces of Holland Park are a few moments' walk away.
