The Property

Spacious and stylish property in a grand white stucco townhouse close to Holland Park

This third-floor flat is centred on a generous reception room running the entire width of the building. As well as space for separate dining and seating areas, a series of south-facing windows fill the room with light.

Indoor Spaces

This floor also features a pair of bedrooms. The principal bedroom has an ensuite bathroom, as well as a dressing room on the half-landing.

The second floor features a convenient fitted kitchen, while the property is accessed via the first floor. There are also two guest WCs.

The Design

The flat is decorated in a restrained fashion, with neutral interiors emphasising the sense of brightness and space throughout. It is presented in good condition, including newly carpeted floors and painted walls.

The Neighbourhood

The property features a balcony opposite the first-floor entrance, overlooking the garden.

The flat is part of a double-fronted stucco townhouse built in the mid-Victorian era. These grand villas were constructed between 1860 and 1880 by the brothers William and Francis Radford. Early residents of the street included aristocrats and statesmen, as well as prominent engineers, politicians and lawyers. This house was home to the last Maharajah of Lahore.

From here, Holland Park underground station is a few moments' walk away, while the restaurants and shops of Notting Hill are also nearby. In addition, the open spaces of Holland Park are close.
