The Property

Newly refurbished property on a historic and sought-after street of grand white stucco villas

Stepping into the flat on the second floor, the front hall leads into a well-proportioned reception room. As well as space for dining and seating areas, this room has a pair of south-facing French doors opening onto a balcony. Next door is a convenient fitted kitchen.

Indoor Spaces

The flat is decorated in a restrained fashion, with a neutral colour scheme adding to the sense of light and space. It has been recently refurbished and is presented in delightful condition.

The Bedroom

The other side of the flat features a bedroom with inbuilt wardrobes and full-length windows opening onto another balcony. Next door is a new bathroom, while there is further storage space in the hallways.

The Neighbourhood

The flat includes front and rear balconies. The rear, south-facing balcony has views over the charming houses of Holland Park Mews.

The flat is part of a double-fronted stucco townhouse with a lift built in the mid-Victorian era. These grand villas were constructed between 1860 and 1880 by the brothers William and Francis Radford. Early residents of the street included aristocrats and statesmen, as well as prominent engineers, politicians and lawyers.

From here, Holland Park underground station is a few moments' walk away, while the restaurants and shops of Notting Hill are also nearby. In addition, the open spaces of Holland Park are close.
