The Property

Spacious flat with an impressive reception room in a popular Art Deco apartment building

This seventh-floor flat centres on a large reception room with wide windows. As well as wooden floors and a pair of ornamental fireplaces, this room has enough space for separate dining and seating areas.

Indoor Spaces

The flat is decorated in a contemporary style with considerable storage space. It is presented in good condition.

In addition, this side of the flat contains a principal bedroom with an ensuite bathroom. Next door is a second bedroom, while the third can be found at the opposite end of the flat with a bathroom next door. In addition, there is a fitted kitchen with modern appliances and enough space for an informal breakfast area.

The Neighbourhood

Malvern Court is a sought-after Art Deco apartment building with a porter and lift.

The property is ideally located. South Kensington underground station is close, while the world-class cultural facilities of the Museum District are also nearby. In addition, the many restaurants and shops of the King's Road and the Fulham Road are within easy reach.
