The Property

Tasteful property with spacious interiors and possible parking in a quiet setting close to the King's Road

The interior of the house has been decorated in a tasteful and traditional style, to suit its historic location.

Indoor Spaces

Entering the house on the ground floor, the staircase hall leads through to a kitchen and dining room. This floor also contains a bedroom with a bathroom next door.

The first floor is entirely occupied by a generous reception room. High ceilings and full-length sash windows on both sides of the room give an added sense of space and light.

The Bedrooms

The second floor contains the principal bedroom suite. This includes a spacious ensuite bathroom with marble tiling and a separate dressing room.

Outdoor Spaces

The property is accessed via a gated courtyard, surrounded by attractive houses with metal verandas and stucco ground floors. The courtyard is set back from Old Church Street, creating a sense of privacy and calm.

In addition, the property has access to an underground parking space, to be negotiated separately.

The Neighbourhood

Old Church Street is the oldest street in Chelsea, been home to numerous artists, architects, musicians and writers over the years. It has a unique mix of Georgian, Victorian and Modern architecture, evoking the rich history of the entire neighbourhood. The property is close to the King's Road, with its celebrated mix of restaurants and shops. In addition, the Chelsea Embankment and Battersea Park are both within walking distance.
