Onslow Square

Outdoor Spaces CLOSE

The property includes access to a shared patio directly from the kitchen. Additionally, there is a private terrace accessed from the half landing, providing a quiet outdoor retreat. Most notably, the property includes access to the award-winning gardens of Onslow Square - some of the largest private gardens in the borough, beautifully laid out with lawns, flowerbeds and shaded woodland areas, providing a rare sanctuary in central London.

The Neighbourhood CLOSE

Onslow Square is a prestigious garden square in South Kensington, renowned for its elegant white stucco terraced houses surrounding one of London's most distinguished private gardens. The square offers a peaceful residential setting while being moments away from the cultural attractions of South Kensington, including the Natural History Museum, Victoria and Albert Museum, and the Royal Albert Hall.

The area benefits from excellent transport links with South Kensington Underground station providing access to the District, Circle and Piccadilly lines. The fashionable shops and restaurants of King's Road and Knightsbridge are within easy reach, while Hyde Park offers extensive green space for recreation. The neighbourhood is also well-served by excellent schools and medical facilities, making it particularly suitable for families.
