Spacious and stylish house with light-filled interiors and communal garden access

Entering the house on the raised ground floor, the front hall leads into a large kitchen with a central dining area. This flows through to a reception room with an ornamental fireplace.

Both these rooms have high ceilings and wooden floors, while substantial bay windows create a double aspect and fill the space with natural light. This level also features a home office with a pair of French doors giving access to the communal garden, and a guest WC.

The interiors of the house are decorated in a sophisticated style that adds to the impression of light and space throughout. It also features elegant details like ornamental cornices, wooden joinery and an attractive staircase bannisters.
